

Due to the Covid-19 outbreak, Hills Basketball Association has had to suspend local competitions indefinitely. Whilst there are no local competition games being played, HBA would like to provide our members with the option to work on their skills during this period.

From Saturday 2nd May we will be offering our local competition players the opportunity to train through Zoom and acknowledge that our code of conduct needs to be altered to reflect any online interaction.

1. I acknowledge that Hills Basketball association will have video access to our property
2. I must wear appropriate clothing to participate in the session. E.g. enclosed shoes, t-shirt, etc. This may be a good opportunity to wear your local competition uniform
3. I will behave in a responsible and controlled manner whilst training and will avoid creating or reacting to situations with verbal aggression.
4. I will treat all coaches and fellow participants with politeness and respect
5. Social Media
 - a. Must not offend, intimidate, humiliate or bully any member, staff or Coach
 - b. Must not be misleading, false or injure the reputation of members, staff or Coaches.
 - c. Must not record sessions and place on any social media platform
 - d. Should seek to protect the privacy of members, staff and Coaches
 - e. Must not bring the sport, member, staff or Coach into disrepute

I understand and acknowledge that failure to abide by all the requirements of the above code of conduct may result in withdrawal of my position and consequently my removal from the sessions.
